WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN THE 2022 CONGRESS

Wichita State University students participated in the 2022 National Student Congress in Washington, D.C. The event was held from October 10-14, 2022, at the Marriott Marquis Washington, D.C. The students, including members of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, were accompanied by faculty members and staff. The congress provided a unique opportunity for students to engage in policy discussions, networking, and professional development. Participants included students from various disciplines, such as Business Administration, Education, and Health Services. The event was a significant experience for the students, allowing them to interact with peers from other institutions and gain insights into national issues.
