1 GraduateAssistantship Types ad Duties

1.3 Graduate Staff Assistant (GSA)

The primary function of a graduate staff assistant (GSA) is to assist-teaching and noresearch activities. Specific duties of the GSA vary widelypdeding on the administrative or academic unit to which they are assigned, but should be at a level to make use of their education and abilities. Although GSAs may assist in various offices, their function is to perform more than the usual receptionist/seretary duties. Computer data entry, record maintenance, reports and survey preparation, correlating data, answering specific questions, are some of the duties GSAs will typically perform. Some GSAs may have musical performance as their principal assignment. GSA responsibilities may also include interacting with students, faculty, administrators, alumni, and visitors to the University. For this reason GSAs have the latitude to make decisions involving judgment and/or discretionary choices in accomplishing these duties.

3 Important Title IX Information

3.1 Prohibiting Sexual Harassment

In addition to being illegal, sexual harassment runs counter to the objectiveschifal/State University. When people, whether student, faculty, staff, or visitor, feel coerced, threatened, intimidated, or otherwise pressured by others, their academic and work performance is likely to suffer. In addition, such actions violate not only tlignity of the individual but also the integrity of the University as an institution for learning addemic freedom flourishes when all are free to pursue ideas in a nonhereatening, noncoercive atmosphere of mutual respect

Sexual harassment in all of its forms is thus harmful not only to persons involved but also the entire University community. The university has a comprehensive policy on sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, relationship violence and stalking policy in their policies and procedureal. The Graduate School fully supports this policy and maintains at the cance policy with respect to these issues. Pleasefer to Section 3.06 of the WSU Policies and Procedures Mantan a full understanding of these issues (Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment, Relationship Violence and Stalking Policy for Employees and Visitors). It is your responsibility to read and understand section 3.06 before you begin your assistantship.

3.2 Inappropriate Relationships

Whether you are ssistinger a direct GTA it is not acceptable have any type of intimate, sexual or inappropriate contact with your students. This is true even if both parties consent to the relationship. As a teacher, you are a position of authority (power differential) with your students; therefties, i never acceptable. Never. In addition to the fact that this is covered under the previously mentioned university policy (Section 3.06), the Graduate School has zero-tolerancepolicy. Such breaches of behavior will not only lead to the revocation of your assistantship, but due to the breach of professional ethics, which is an integral part of graduate studies, yoluendisymissed from your academic program.

Please note, in addition to the aforementioned policy, Section of the WSU Policies and Procedures Manuabutlines protections for you within the University. We are committed to preventing all sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking within the University community. Please consult this very important policy if you ever feel uncomfortable. Resources are listed within that policyfor you.

4 GTA Duties and FERPA

4.1 GTA Assignment Duties

GTAs (both direct and assisting) must use caution in the exercise of their Idutjieseral, GTAs should not be in a position to evaluate their peers course work nor provide instruction without proper backgound training or academic accomplishments.

The following Graduate School rules govern the assignments of GTAs duties:

- f GTAs (working on their master's degree) are qualifiedassist with or teach undergraduateourses (regular and lab).
- f GTAs (working on their master's degree) are qualified to assist with or team that courses (master's level) when they have already completed the lab themselves and are in the final stages of their master's program.

7 Graduate Assistant Regulations and Exceptions

7.1 Minimum Enrollment Hours

Regulation: Required enrollment in at least 9 graduate semester hours taken for credit during fall/spring semesters (some units may reduce this to as low as 6 credit hourstiffone also is stants, with the approval by the chair of the degree seeking program).

Justification:

Justification: The Graduate Schodbes not want the assistantship to hinder the student student (at least 3 toward degree completion. Given the academic work load of a typical graduate student (at least 3 hours of work for every 1 credit hour taken, totaling 36 academic work hours for a 9 hour enrollment) combined with their assistantship work hours, most graduate assistants put in 40 to 60 hours of combined academic and assistantship hours. The Graduate School, therefore, places a limit of 20 hours for an assistantship appointment.

Student may request additional hours by filing an exception (available under Forms & Publications at the Graduate School's website). The maximum work hours allowed for domestic students is 30 hours per week. When such exceptions are approved, normally the following conditions have been met:

- f the additional work hours are tied to academic studies/success
- f the exception form has the proper signatures and approval from the advisor/chair of the program
- f an approved plan of study is on file
- f an application for degree has been filled is the last semester of coursework for the degree
- f It is also helpful for your advisor to include a meeof support or to send an email to the Associate Dean or his/her assistant (once the exception is filed)

Other conditions that may qualify for an exception are practicum/internship hours associated with some professional and doctoral programs.

International students are prohibited from working more than 20 hours per week by the United StatesCitizenship and

Graduate School to graduate and in many cases to be eligible for your exceptions to School te Regulations to be evaluated. It also serves as a guide to your course work and a contractual agreement between you and your program since the filing of the Plan of Study trigogram to year for your degree requirements

Accordingly, the Graduate School encourages graduate students who are seeking a degree to file a Plan of Study as early as possible, no later than the end of the semestempletion of qualifying examinations for doctoral students.

Students may make changes to the Plan of Study ainamy submitting a revision to the Plan of Study form available at the Graduate School or Graduate School web page. However, the plan mus be approved no later than the 20ay of the fall or spring semester, or the 40ay of the eightweek summer term, during the semester of graduation.

Failure to meet the deadline for filing an acceptable Plan of Study may result in a delay itingradua or loss of credit planned for use in the program.
