Provide a brief assessment of the quality of the faculty/staff using the data from the tables in section 2 as well as any additional relevant data. Programs should comment on details in regard to productivity of the faculty (i.e., some departments may have a few faculty producing the majority of the scholarship), efforts to recruit/retain faculty, departmental succession plans, course evaluation data, etc.

Our course credit hours are assigned as typical face-to-face courses. The time in class is comparable to the number of credit hours assigned. The online courses we have correspond to our face-to-face courses; so the credit hours are the same. Our private instruction is as follows: a music major receives a 30-minute lesson and an hour master class per week for 2 credit hours. Non-majors receive a 30-minute lesson per week and are not required to attend a master class—for 2 credit hours. Professors require various amounts of practice for these courses. Some instrumentalists are physically able to practice longer than others.
